PLAINTIFFS' ORIGINAL PETITION CHALLENGING THE CERTIFICATION OF CANDIDATES WHOSE
APPLICATIONS WERE NOT CERTIFIED BY THEIR PARTY
CHAIR, WITH RELATED APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

COME NOW, the Dallas County Republican Party (the “DCRP”) and Missy Shorey (“Shorey”), as Chairwoman of the DCRP, and file this, their Original Petition Challenging the Certification of a 128 (one hundred and twenty-nine) Democratic Candidates’ Applications For a Place on the Democratic Primary Ballot, & Application for Temporary Injunction complaining of and against the Dallas County Democratic Party (the “DCDP”), Carol Donovan (“Donovan”) as Chairwoman thereof, and for cause of action would respectfully show unto the Court as follows:

I. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

1. This lawsuit arises out of the certification of compliance for and submission to the Secretary of State by the DCDP of 128 candidates for places on the Democratic Primary Ballot, whose applications were not accepted by the DCDP’s Chairwoman Donovan, the only individual with the statutory authority to do so under the Election Code.
2. The Plaintiffs seek injunctive relief to prevent Donovan and the DCDP from including: (a) any of these candidates, whose applications are attached in Plaintiffs’ Appendix to this Petition on the March 2018 Democratic Primary ballot; and (b) any of these candidates on the November 2018 General Election Ballot as a result of any such candidates participation in the March 2018 Democratic Primary.
3. The Plaintiffs also seek injunctive relief to prevent Donovan and the DCDP from declaring any of these candidates administratively ineligible and replacing them, where statute permits, with a candidate of Donovan’s choice so as to avoid a ruling in the Plaintiffs favor on the merits.

II. DISCOVERY CONTROL PLAN

3. This matter is subject to Discovery Level 2 in accordance with the Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 190.3.

III. PARTIES

4. The DCRP is a political party organized in accordance with the Texas Election Code, with its principal place of business located at 11617 N. Central Expressway, Suite 240, Dallas, Texas, 75243.
5. Shorey, as the Dallas County Republican Party Chairwoman, is an individual who resides in Dallas County, Texas.
6. The DCDP is a political party organized in accordance with the Texas Election Code with its principal place of business located at 4209 Parry Avenue, Dallas, Texas 75223. 7. Donovan, as the Dallas County Democratic Party Chairwoman, is an individual who resides in Dallas County Democratic Party located at 4209 Parry Avenue, Dallas, Texas, 75223. Donovan may be served with process at her principal place of business, or by serving its General Counsel, Sarah Duncan, at 3500 Maple Ave, Dallas, TX 75219, or wherever else either may be found.

IV. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Jurisdiction is proper in this Court in accordance with Texas Election Code §§ 145.035 and 172.117 and the Plaintiff is seeking an injunction against the Defendants in accordance with Texas Civil Practices & Remedies Code § 65.021.

2. Venue is proper in Dallas County, Texas, because the events giving rise to Plaintiffs' causes of action occurred in Dallas County, Texas and because all parties are residents of (or have their principal place of business in) Dallas County for venue purposes.

V.FACTS

A. Background

3. The deadline to submit applications for placement on the March Primary Ballot for Judicial Races in Dallas County was December 11, 2017.
4. After the filing deadline, a candidate may not file and the county Chair may not accept, an amended application or an amendment to an application.¹
5. The candidates whose petitions are the subject of this challenge submitted their applications and/or applications and petitions, along with a fee, to the DCDP for offices sought wholly within Dallas County, between, DATE RANGE, in accordance with The Texas Election Code §§ 141.031, and 172.022 (a)(2).
6. An agent or agents of the DCDP accepted these petitions petition.
7. Thereafter, these applications were signed by an unknown individual or individuals purporting to be Donovan, so certifying the candidates for inclusion on the primary ballot, in violation of the Texas Election Code, §§ 141.037 and 72.029(a)(2).
8. The Primary Election is scheduled to be held on March 6, 2018, and early voting ballots were initially scheduled to be mailed January 20, 2018.

B. THE 128 CANDIDATES WHOSE APPLICATIONS WERE NOT SIGNED, ACCEPTED, AND CERTIFIED TO COMPLY BY THE CHAIR OF THEIR PARTY ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR PLACEMENT ON THE BALLOT BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE

9. The Texas Election Code states that a candidate's application for a place on the ballot, must be "be timely filed with the appropriate authority."²
10. The Election Code also makes clear that for any office that is wholly within one county, a candidate's application for a place on a party's primary ballot must be filed with that political party, specifically with the County Chair or the County Party Secretary.³
11. The Election Code gives the Secretary of State the authority to create and prescribe different forms for varying levels of government.⁴
12. The application form (Form 2-2), contains a further admonition within the form warning that failing to provide required information could result in rejection of the application: "All fields MUST be completed unless marked optional. Failure to provide required information may result in rejection of application."⁵
13. The Election Code requires that, once those applications are received by the appropriate authority (for placement on the March 2018 Dallas Democratic Primary Ballot, the DCDP), that "authority with whom the application is filed shall review the application to determine whether it complies with the requirements as to form, content, and procedure that the application and petition must satisfy for the candidate's name to be placed on the ballot.”⁶

14. After making the relevant authority makes that determination, the Election Code requires it to certify the names of all candidates who comply, as the names are written on the application, for placement on the ballot.⁷

15. The County Chair, alone, is the presiding officer of a county party, under the Election Code.⁸

16. The Election Code designates the County Chair, alone, as the sole person responsible for certifying and authorized to submit the names of complying candidates to the Secretary of State,^{9, 10}

17. And though the Secretary of State may prescribe deadlines by which these submissions must be delivered, the Code makes very clear that those candidate submissions are to be made by the Chair.¹¹

18. The form also indicates, at the bottom, that the certification for submission to the Secretary of State is “TO BE COMPLETED BY CHAIR.”

19. This authority may not be delegated except in very limited circumstances. In fact, the Code only makes provision for the a State Party Chair to perform a County Chairs' job, and then only makes this provision if: (a) there is an absence of County Party leadership; or (b) the

County Chair does not perform a duty in a timely manner.¹² However, even then, a State Chair must make special notice to the County Chair or the County Executive Committee if he or she is going to or has performed one of the Chair's duties for him or her, including the submission of candidate information under Section 172.29.¹³

20. If the Party Chair has a reasonable impediment to being able to perform those tasks which the Election Code requires of them with regard to Primary Elections, the County Chair may request, in advance, that the State Chair or the State Chair's Designee perform the duty instead of the Chair.

21. But there is no provision in the Election Code that makes it possible or permissible for anyone else to perform the Chair's Election Duties.

22. On information and belief, Donovan made no such a request to the Texas Democratic Party's Chair, nor is there any indication that the Texas Democratic Party Chair notified Donovan or DCDP of a determination that Donovan was not performing her duties in a timely manner, so authorizing the State Chair to perform them.

23. Political Parties are expressly prohibited by the Code from making nominations to public office by any other method.¹⁴

24. In the attached Appendix, Plaintiffs submit all 151 Applications submitted to the DCDP by candidates (and submitted by the DCDP to the Secretary of State) for inclusion on the March 2018 Democratic Primary Ballot.

25. Donovan signed only 23 of these 151 Applications. The remaining 127 applications bear someone else's forgery of Donovan's name – the forgeries do not resemble Carol Donovan's signature as it appears on her own application for inclusion on the Democratic Primary Ballot for the Office of Party Chairman.

26. Only a county party chair may accept applications for ballot access (or, in the narrow exceptions provided by the Code, the State Chair or Designee) or submit complying candidates to the Secretary of State for inclusion on the ballot.¹⁵

27. The following applications for the following candidates in the following district are indeed accepted and signed by the County Chair, with a signature that matches Defendant Donovan's signature on her own application for inclusion on the party primary ballot for Party Chair:

30. DCDP sent certifications of compliance to the Secretary of State for 128 Candidates whose applications were accepted in violation of the Election Code. No candidate wrongly accepted by an unauthorized individual can legally be included on a ballot for the March 2018 primary election.

C.DCRP TIMELY FILE THIS CHALLENGE TO THE 128
CANDIDATES' INCLUSION ON THE PRIMARY BALLOT

31. The Election Code authorizes challenges to the form, content, and procedure of an application until the end of the day before any ballot to be voted on via early mail voting has been mailed out.¹⁶ Early voting ballots for voting by mail were initially scheduled to be mailed out by the Dallas County Elections Department on Saturday January 20, 2018.

32. This Original Petition initiates a challenge to the form, content, and procedure of the 128 candidates' whose applications were not accepted and submitted by the DCDP Chair well within this time limit.

VI. CAUSES OF ACTION

Count One – Declaratory Judgment

33. The Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate-by-reference the facts and allegations set forth above.

34. A justiciable controversy has arisen between the Plaintiffs and the Defendants. The Plaintiffs ask the Court to declare that the 128 Candidates whose applications were not accepted by ¹⁶ Tex. Elec. Code §141.034.

Donovan before their wrongful submission to the Secretary of State are not eligible for inclusion on the March 2018 Democratic Primary Ballot.

35. It was necessary for the Plaintiffs to employ counsel to prosecute this action. In accordance with §37.001 et seq. of the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code, the Plaintiffs are entitled to recover their reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees and costs herein, for which they now sue.

36. All conditions precedent to recovery have been performed, have occurred, or have been waived.

Count Two -- Application for Temporary Restraining Order & Temporary Injunction

37. The Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate-by-reference the facts and allegations set forth above.

38. One of the principal purposes behind the Texas Election Code is the prevention of election fraud and electoral misconduct, and to protect the integrity of the electoral process. Tex. Elec. Code §1.003(a); In re Bell, 91 S.W.3d 784, 787 (Tex. 2002). "A person who is being harmed or is in danger of being harmed by a violation or threatened violation of this code is entitled to appropriate injunctive relief to prevent the violation from continuing or occurring." Tex. Elec. Code §273.081.

39. The DCDP has submitted to the Secretary of State, in violation of the provisions of the Texas Election Code in Section 172.029(a), 128 different candidates for the Democratic Primary who were not accepted by the DCDP Chair Donovan. It is past the statutory deadline set by the Secretary of State for any additional Applications to be submitted to the Secretary of State by the DCDP.

40. Many of the 128 identified candidates seek offices for which the DCRP was unable to timely certify to the Secretary of State its receipt of a statutorily compliant candidate application. When no party timely submits to the Secretary of State the name of a candidate certified by the proper authority as having met the application requirements established by the Election Code for inclusion on a primary ballot, the Election Code authorizes the parties to subsequently nominate a designated candidate for office. Accordingly, the Plaintiffs are in danger of being denied their statutory right to designate nominees for the many offices for which Donovan, the only individual with the statutory authority to certify candidates' compliance and submit them to the Secretary of State, did not do so.

41. Others of the 128 identified candidates seek offices for which the DCRP did timely certify to the Secretary of State its receipt of one or more statutorily compliant candidate applications. In these instances, the Plaintiffs are in danger of being harmed by by having to face an opponent in the November 2018 General Election, who the Texas Election Code bars from inclusion as a candidate. Risner v. Harris County Republican Party, 444 S.W.3d 327, 345 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist] 2014, writ of mandamus denied, 2014 Tex. LEXIS 801 (Tex. September 8, 2014)).

42. DCRP, and Shorey, have complied with their statutory obligations. They, and their candidates, would suffer harm from upholding the stringencies of the Election Code, when their counterparts have not done the same. Additionally, the Plaintiffs, like all Dallasits, would suffer harm in the form of the damages to the integrity of the elections process that would result from an unequal application of the law allowing 128 candidates onto the ballot, despite the DCDP's flagrant, willful, systematic submission of candidates to the Secretary of State who had not been certified as compliant by Donovan.

43. The injunctive relief sought herein is necessary to adequately protect the interests of the Plaintiffs, and the voting public, from election fraud, misconduct, and manipulation of the election process. The Plaintiffs do not have an alternative, after-the-fact, adequate remedy at law. If a temporary restraining order is not immediately entered, there is a substantial likelihood that the Defendants will allow the 128 identified candidates to be placed on March 2018 Democratic Primary Baallot, and, thereafter, on the November 2018 General Election Ballot, all in violation of the Texas Election Code.

44. The Plaintiffs will suffer immediate and irreparable harm unless the Defendants, their agents, representatives, servants, employees, affiliates, and anyone with actual or constructive knowledge of this injunction are immediately restrained from, directly or indirectly, engaging in the following acts:

- (a) Certifying any of the identified candidates for inclusion on the March 2018 Democratic Primary Ballot;
- (b) Certifying any of the identified candidates as DCDP nominees on the November General Election Ballot as a result of participation in the March 2018 Democratic Primary;
- (c) Verifying or certifying the printing of ballots including any of the identified candidates' names as candidates for office in the March 2018 Democratic Primary or in the November 2018 General Election;

- (d) Conducting any Primary Election, or authorizing anyone else to conduct on their behalf, a Primary Election in which any of the identified candidates are listed as candidates for office;
- (e) Conducting the November 2018 General Election, participating in the November 2018 General Election, or authorizing anyone else to conduct on their behalf the November 2018 General Election, to the extent that any of the identified candidates is listed as the DCDP's primary winner for any office or as the DCDP's nominee for any office; and/or
- (f) Declaring each and every any identified candidate ineligible under Tex. Elec. Code §145.003(f);

45. The Plaintiffs have a substantial likelihood of prevailing on the merits. Given the high likelihood that the Plaintiffs will prove that the Defendants did not comply with the Election Code and prevail on the merits, no legitimate harm or prejudice will result to the Defendants from the Court granting the requested injunctive relief before trial. On the other hand, the Plaintiffs will suffer immediate and irreparable harm from a denial of such injunctive relief.

46. There is no remedy at law for Plaintiffs' additional statutory rights if the TRO is not granted. The Texas Election Code provides that when there has not been a Primary Election in either party, the County Party Committees may so appoint a representative to represent them on the ballot. If the TRO is granted, particularly in cases where there is no Republican candidate, and no primary race is held in that seat in either party, both Parties could still appoint a candidate for the November ballot. However, if the TRO is not granted, and Plaintiff were to prevail between the Primary and the General Election, because the Democratic Party held a primary, Plaintiff could not appoint a representative to represent them in November.

VII.CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

47. All conditions precedent necessary for Plaintiffs to have and recover in this action have been performed, have occurred or have been waived.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the DCRP, acting through Shorey, respectfully requests that: (a) citation issue and process be served on the DCDP and Carol Donovan, its Chairwoman; (b) the Court grant both a Temporary Restraining Order, and, after a hearing, both a Temporary Injunction and a Permanent Injunction against Defendants; and (c) the Court grant the Plaintiffs a declaratory judgment as requested, including in its relief the Plaintiffs' reasonable and necessary attorney's fees incurred prosecuting this action, costs and expenses of suit herein, and both pre- and post-judgment interest on all monetary relief sought herein at the highest rates allowed by law. Finally, the Plaintiffs ask for any other and further relief to which the Court determines the Plaintiffs may be justly entitled.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 19th day of January, 2018.
